STIPULATION AND AGREED ORDER BY AND AMONG FINANCIAL OVERSIGHT AND MANAGEMENT BOARD, ITS SPECIAL CLAIMS COMMITTEE, AND OFFICIAL COMMITTEE OF UNSECURED CREDITORS RELATED TO JOINT PROSECUTION OF DEBTOR CAUSES OF ACTION

To the Honorable United States District Judge Laura Taylor Swain:

This stipulation and consent order (the “Stipulation”) is made and entered into by and among the Financial Oversight and Management Board for Puerto Rico (the “Oversight Board”), the Special Claims Committee of the Oversight Board (the “Special Claims Committee”),² and the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors of All Title III Debtors (other than COFINA) (the “Committee” and, together with the Oversight Board and the Special Claims Committee, the “Parties”). The Parties hereby stipulate and agree as follows:

² Certain of the causes of action that are the subject of this Stipulation are to be prosecuted (with the Committee) by counsel to the Oversight Board while others are to be prosecuted (with the Committee) by counsel to the Special Claims Committee. The members of the Special Claims Committee are Andrew Biggs, Arthur J. González, Ana J. Matosantos, and David A. Skeel.

RECITALS

WHEREAS, on August 20, 2018, Kobre & Kim LLP, the investigator retained by the Oversight Board's Special Investigation Committee, issued its Final Investigative Report (the "Final Report");

WHEREAS, on August 28, 2018, the Oversight Board executed a unanimous written consent appointing the Special Claims Committee to pursue certain claims resulting from the findings in the Final Report, and, on November 28, 2018, the Special Claims Committee retained Brown Rudnick LLP;

WHEREAS, on March 25, 2019, the Committee filed its motion [Docket No. 5997] (the "Procedures Motion") seeking, among other things, to establish procedures with respect to the disclosure of certain causes of actions to be asserted by the Oversight Board on behalf of the Debtors and to establish a procedure for the potential appointment of a trustee pursuant to Section 926 of PROMESA;

WHEREAS, on March 29, 2019, the Court entered an order [Docket No. 6086] (the "Procedures Order") granting the Procedures Motion;

WHEREAS, under the Procedures Order, the Court, among other things, required the Oversight Board and the Special Claims Committee to disclose to the Committee by April 5, 2019 a preliminary list of potential causes of action that the Oversight Board or the Special Claims Committee would, in the absence of appropriate tolling agreements, intend to pursue on behalf of the Commonwealth, directed the parties to meet and confer regarding the contents of such preliminary list and anticipated allocation of litigation responsibilities, and required the disclosure to the Committee by April 10, 2019³ of the final list of potential defendants against which the Oversight Board or the Special Claims Committee will pursue causes of action related to the Commonwealth or from which they will obtain tolling agreements;

WHEREAS, following the disclosure of the Oversight Board's and Special Committee's preliminary list on April 5, 2019, the Parties have met and conferred to discuss, among other things, the Debtors' potential causes of actions against certain parties and the allocation of litigation responsibilities; and

WHEREAS, the Parties have agreed to a framework to pursue the ~~Debtors'~~ potential causes of action of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico (the "Commonwealth").

NOW, THEREFORE, THE PARTIES HEREBY STIPULATE AND AGREE, AND UPON THE COURT'S APPROVAL, IT SHALL BE ORDERED AND BINDING ON ALL PARTIES IN INTEREST AS FOLLOWS:

STIPULATION

Effectiveness

1. This Stipulation is effective as of the date this Stipulation is entered on the docket as "so ordered" by the Court. Pending approval of this Stipulation by the Court, each of the Parties agrees it is and will be bound by this Stipulation and waives any right to object to its approval by the Court. In the event that this Stipulation is not approved by the Court, it will be null and void and have no further force or effect whatsoever except as may be otherwise agreed in writing by the Parties.

Appointment of (a) Members of the Special Claims Committee and
(b) Committee as Co-Trustees and Co-Plaintiffs

2. The Oversight Board, the Special Claims Committee, and the Committee, working jointly, have identified claims or causes of action of the ~~Debtors~~Commonwealth.⁴

which, subject to obtaining certain Tolling Agreements (as defined below), shall be asserted against certain entities (each, a “Potential Defendant”), and have resolved to work jointly on the prosecution of such claims or causes of action (all as further provided herein). The schedules of so identified claims or causes of actions and Potential Defendants are referred to herein as the “Schedules.”

3. In connection with the prosecution of such claims or causes of action, the Oversight Board has determined to consent to the appointment, solely to the extent provided in this Stipulation, of (a) the members of the Special Claims Committee, on the one hand, and the Committee, on the other hand, as co-trustees and co-plaintiffs with respect to the Co-Plaintiff Adversary Proceedings (as defined below) and (b) the Committee as sole trustee/plaintiff with respect to the Subject Adversary Proceedings (as defined below). With respect to such appointment, sections 105(a), 503(b)(3)(B), 1103(c), and 1109(b) of the Bankruptcy Code permit the Oversight Board to consensually grant standing to the Committee, when necessary and beneficial to do so. See Commodore International, Ltd. v. Gould (In re Commodore International, Ltd.), 262 F.3d 96 (2d Cir. 2001) (setting forth test for consensual grant of derivative standing).⁴⁵ In addition, under section 926 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Court may appoint a trustee to pursue certain causes of action for the benefit of the DebtorsCommonwealth. The Parties agree and, upon entry of the Stipulation by the Court, the Court finds that (a) approval of the framework set forth in this Stipulation and the appointment of co-trustees is necessary and appropriate to carry out the provisions of Title III of the Debtors’

~~cases~~Commonwealth's case and (b) the conferral of co-plaintiff status on the Committee with respect to the Adversary Proceedings (as defined below), in each case to the extent set forth in this Stipulation, is (i) in the best interests of ~~the Debtors~~Commonwealth and ~~their respective~~its property and (ii) necessary and beneficial to the efficient resolution of these cases. Accordingly, upon entry of this Stipulation by the Court, the Court appoints (a) the members of the Special Claims Committee, on the one hand, and the Committee, on the other hand, as co-trustees and co-plaintiffs with respect to the Co-Plaintiff Adversary Proceedings and (b) the Committee as the sole trustee/plaintiff with respect to the Subject Adversary Proceedings. Solely to the extent, if any, that section 305 of PROMESA serves as a limitation on judicial power over the authority delegated to the Committee (subject to the terms of this Stipulation), the Oversight Board hereby consents. The rights of the Puerto Rico Fiscal Agency and Financial Advisory Authority \(“AAFAF”\) to move to dismiss any Adversary Proceeding authorized to be brought under this Stipulation on the grounds that the claims asserted in such Adversary Proceeding are inconsistent with Section 303 of PROMESA are preserved. Any plaintiff or trustee reserves all rights to oppose any such motion, including on the grounds that such cause of action falls within the powers of the Oversight Board to pursue, and the Court shall adjudicate any such motion as if the Oversight Board was the party prosecuting such Adversary Proceeding, regardless of whether the Oversight Board is the plaintiff to that particular Adversary Proceeding.

Pursuit of Causes of Action Against Potential Defendants

4. Subject to paragraph 14 below, the Oversight Board or the Special Claims Committee shall either (a) obtain tolling agreements from Potential Defendants or entry of Court-ordered stipulations with respect to Potential Defendants (such agreements or stipulations, collectively, the “Tolling Agreements” and each, a “Tolling Agreement”) tolling the applicable statutes of limitations (the “Statutes of Limitations”), or (b) to the extent a Tolling Agreement cannot be obtained from a Potential Defendant before the expiration of the Statutes of Limitations, commence an adversary proceeding or lawsuit against such Potential Defendant (such proceedings, the “Initial Adversary Proceedings”). In the event that a Potential Defendant enters into a Tolling Agreement which is not a court-approved stipulation, the Parties shall maintain the identity of any and all Potential Defendants in the strictest of confidence pending the filing of an Initial Adversary Proceeding, a Subsequent Adversary Proceeding or a motion under paragraph 10 or 11 hereof, unless otherwise compelled to disclose such information by an order of this Court upon notice and a hearing.

5. For the avoidance of doubt, Initial Adversary Proceedings shall be commenced ~~(a) in the case of causes of action held by the Commonwealth, on or before May 2, 2019, (b) in the case of causes of action held by HTA or ERS, on or before May 20, 2019, and (c) in the case of causes of actions held by PREPA, on or before July 1, on or before May 2, 2019.~~

6. The Committee shall be a party to any Tolling Agreement (and any extension thereof) entered into by the Oversight Board, the Special Claims Committee, or the ~~Debtors~~Commonwealth with any Potential Defendant.

7. The Committee shall be a co-trustee and co-plaintiff to all Initial Adversary Proceedings and all subsequent adversary proceedings or lawsuits (such proceedings, the “Subsequent Adversary Proceedings” and, together with the Initial Adversary Proceedings, the “Co-Plaintiff Adversary Proceedings”) commenced by the Oversight Board or the Special Claims Committee, as the case may be, against a Potential Defendant after expiration or termination of the Tolling Agreement with respect to such Potential Defendant. All co-plaintiffs or co-trustees to any Co-Plaintiff Adversary Proceeding agree to avoid any unnecessary or unreasonable duplication of effort with respect to any incurrence of fees in connection with an adversary proceeding commenced under this Stipulation.

8. In the event that either (a) the Oversight Board or the Special Claims Committee, as the case may be, or (b) the Committee believes the other co-plaintiff is not prosecuting a Co-Plaintiff Adversary Proceeding in an adequate and timely fashion, the Oversight Board, the Special Claims Committee, or the Committee, as applicable, may seek, by motion to this Court, upon notice and a hearing, to be appointed as sole plaintiff in such Co-Plaintiff Adversary Proceeding, and such party shall so be appointed upon a finding of good cause by this Court. The Oversight Board, the Special Claims Committee, and the Committee, as the applicable co-plaintiff in such Adversary Proceeding, reserve the right to oppose such motion by the other co-plaintiff on the basis that good cause does not exist or on such other basis as they deem appropriate.

9. As soon as reasonably practicable, but in no event later than four (4) business days prior to the commencement of a Co-Plaintiff Adversary Proceeding, the Oversight Board or the Special Claims Committee, as the case may be, shall provide the Committee with a draft complaint (or, in the case of avoidance actions against vendors, a form of draft complaint), that the Oversight Board or the Special Claims Committee, as the case may be, intends to file in such Co-Plaintiff Adversary Proceeding.

10. The Oversight Board or the Special Claims Committee, as the case may be, shall notify the Committee no less than 30 days prior to the expiration of a Tolling Agreement if it has determined not to commence an adversary proceeding or lawsuit against the Potential Defendant party to such Tolling Agreement. In such event, the Committee may request, by motion to this Court, upon notice and a hearing, to be appointed as sole plaintiff to pursue claims or causes of action against such Potential Defendant, and the Committee shall be so appointed upon a finding of good cause by this Court. The Oversight Board and the Special Claims Committee reserve the right to oppose such motion on the basis that good cause does not exist or on such other basis as they deem appropriate.

11. In addition, the Committee may seek, by motion to this Court, upon notice and a hearing, to terminate prior to the applicable expiration date, or to preclude the extension of, any Tolling Agreement with a Potential Defendant for good cause in order to be appointed as sole plaintiff to pursue claims or causes of action against such Potential Defendant, and, upon a finding of good cause by the Court, the Committee shall be so appointed. The Oversight Board and the Special Claims Committee reserve the right to oppose such motion on the basis that good cause does not exist or on such other basis as they deem appropriate.

12. Without in any way limiting or expanding the Committee's rights under section 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code or the Oversight Board's rights under section 312 of PROMESA, each Party in its capacity as a co-plaintiff shall have the right to participate fully in any settlement discussions, mediation, or other dispute resolution with respect to issues solely raised by any Co-Plaintiff Adversary Proceeding. To the extent that resolution of such Co-Plaintiff Adversary Proceeding is part of a plan of adjustment and the mediation thereof, the Oversight Board shall inform the Committee that resolution thereof is encompassed in such plan of adjustment, but the Committee shall not be entitled to participate in any such discussions or mediation, unless (i) invited by the Oversight Board, (ii) directed by the mediation team, or (iii) ordered by the Court upon notice and a hearing; provided, however, that the Oversight Board shall timely advise the Committee that any such discussions or mediation will commence. Without limiting any of the foregoing, to the extent reasonably practicable, each Party shall be provided copies of any written settlement proposals received or made by the other Party in connection with such negotiations, unless otherwise part of a plan of adjustment or the mediation thereof (unless ordered by the Court upon notice and a hearing). Without limiting any of the foregoing, for the avoidance of doubt, the Oversight Board or the Special Claims Committee, as the case may be, will consult, to the extent reasonably practicable, with the Committee in good faith regarding any potential settlement of any claim to which the Co-Plaintiff Adversary Proceeding relates. If the Parties do not agree on a proposed settlement, the Committee reserves any and all rights under applicable law to object or otherwise respond to any settlement proposed by the Oversight Board or the Special Claims Committee, which this Court will consider for approval pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 (whether in connection with a plan of adjustment or otherwise). The Committee shall not have a veto over a proposed settlement of a Co-Plaintiff Adversary Proceeding as a result of the Committee's appointment as either co-trustee or co-plaintiff in such Co-Plaintiff Adversary Proceeding. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Chief Judge Barbara Houser, the Mediation Team Leader, retains authority over the Title III mediation process, including to determine which parties may attend mediation sessions and what disputes will be mediated.

13. With respect to claims or causes of action (the “Subject Claims”) that the Committee wishes to assert against a Potential Defendant, other than the Financial Party Targets (as defined below), but that the Oversight Board or the Special Claims Committee has not agreed to pursue, the Committee is hereby appointed as the sole trustee/plaintiff to commence an adversary proceeding or lawsuit (a “Subject Adversary Proceeding” and, together with the Co-Plaintiff Adversary Proceedings, the “Adversary Proceedings”) against such Potential Defendant to pursue such Subject Claims; provided, however, that (as soon as reasonably practicable after the commencement of such Subject Adversary Proceeding, the Parties shall engage in a confidential meet and confer process to resolve any disagreement as to whether the Committee should pursue such Subject Claims alone, together with the Oversight Board or the Special Claims Committee, or not at all. If the Parties cannot reach agreement on these matters within 30 days after the commencement of such Subject Adversary Proceeding, then the Oversight Board or the Special Claims Committee may seek, by motion to this Court, upon notice and a hearing, to terminate the Committee's appointment as sole trustee/plaintiff in such Subject Adversary Proceeding, and such appointment shall be terminated upon a finding of good cause by this Court. The Committee reserves the right to oppose such motion on the basis that good cause does not exist or on such other basis as it deems appropriate. ~~With respect to the Subject Claims in the Subject Adversary Proceedings, the Committee, as sole trustee/plaintiff, shall have the same statutory rights to access information as the Oversight Board.~~

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Oversight Board and the Special Claims Committee shall have the right and the ability to compromise and settle any Subject Claims, provided that the Committee reserves any and all rights under applicable law to object or otherwise respond to any settlement proposed by the Oversight Board or the Special Claims Committee, which this Court will consider for approval pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 (whether in connection with a plan of adjustment or otherwise). The "Financial Party Targets" shall be the bond counsel, disclosure counsel, underwriters, underwriters' counsel, swap counterparties, or auditors, each in their capacities as such, and any individuals involved in the offering of (a) the Commonwealth's General Obligation ("GO") bonds, (b) bond issued by the Public Buildings Authority ("PBA"), and (c) bonds issued by ERS.

14. Neither the Oversight Board nor the Special Claims Committee shall have any obligation to seek or obtain Tolling Agreements with respect to either the Subject Claims or claims against the Financial Party Targets; provided, however, that if the Oversight Board or the Special Claims Committee enters into a Tolling Agreement with a Potential Defendant, such Tolling Agreement shall cover all claims that are subject to section 546(a) or section 108(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

15. All Adversary Proceedings may be commenced in any court of competent jurisdiction.

16. Each of the co-trustees shall have the benefit of any and all indemnities and immunities available to a trustee under the Bankruptcy Code and PROMESA. For the avoidance of doubt, the protections in section 105 of PROMESA shall apply to the Committee, the members of the Special Claims Committee, and their respective professionals and employees with respect to all actions of the Committee or the members of the Special Claims Committee, as applicable, taken in good faith to carry out their duties under this Stipulation.

Miscellaneous Provisions

17. Upon entry into this Stipulation, the Parties will seek Court approval of this Stipulation by urgent joint motion and will request that (a) the Court hold a hearing on the approval of this Stipulation on an expedited basis on or before April 18, 2019 (subject to the Court's availability) and (b) the deadline for the Committee to file its Section 926 Motion be extended to April 19, 2019 at 6:00 p.m. (Atlantic Standard Time), with any such motion to be heard at the April 24, 2019 omnibus hearing. The Committee agrees that, upon Court approval of this Stipulation, it will waive its right to file a Section 926 Motion with respect to claims or causes of action of the Commonwealth, except (i) to the extent provided in paragraph 18 below and (ii) with respect to claims or causes of action that are subject to tolling agreements or Court-ordered tolling stipulations other than Tolling Agreements with the Potential Defendants.

18. During the meet and confer process with respect to the joint prosecution of claims and causes of action of the Commonwealth and the allocation of litigation responsibilities, the Committee requested that the Oversight Board pursue Commonwealth claims or causes of action (the “Additional Claims”), in addition to those to be asserted by the Oversight Board or the Special Claims Committee, related to or with respect to the offerings of the Commonwealth’s GO bonds, PBA bonds, and ERS bonds against the Financial Party Targets, including on theories of fraudulent transfer, fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, and/or deepening insolvency. The Special Claims Committee declined to assert the Additional Claims. Therefore, the Committee requested that, as part of this Stipulation, the Oversight Board consent to the Committee being appointed as sole trustee/plaintiff to commence adversary proceedings or lawsuits to pursue the Additional Claims, with the same meet and confer process, and the potential for Court intervention, as set forth in paragraph 13 above (i.e., that the Parties would meet and confer after commencement of the adversary proceeding, and, in the case of disagreement, the Oversight Board would have the ability to seek, by motion to this Court, upon notice and a hearing, to terminate the Committee’s appointment as sole trustee/plaintiff in such adversary proceeding upon a showing of good cause). The Special Claims Committee declined to consent to this request; however, the Parties agreed that, notwithstanding this Stipulation, the Committee may seek, by motion to the Court, to be appointed as trustee/plaintiff to pursue the Additional Claims, provided that (i) such motion shall be filed by April 17, 2019, at 9:30 a.m. (Atlantic Standard Time), (ii) the deadline to object to such motion shall be April 19, 2019, at 6:00 p.m. (Atlantic Standard Time), (iii) the reply deadline shall be April 22, 2019 at 6:00 p.m. (Atlantic Standard Time), and (iv) such motion shall be heard at the April 24, 2019 omnibus hearing.

19. The Parties contemplate that they will enter into one or more additional stipulations that will, subject to Court approval, similarly address the appointment of the members of the Special Claims Committee, on the one hand, and the Committee, on the other hand, as co-trustees and co-plaintiffs to pursue additional claims or causes of action of ERS, HTA, and PREPA. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Stipulation shall bind any parties with respect to any such additional stipulations, and all parties' rights with respect to any such additional stipulations are reserved. The members of the Special Claims Committee, on the one hand, and the Committee, on the other hand, reserve all their rights in connection with any such additional stipulations, including their rights under section 926 of the Bankruptcy Code and their rights to seek derivative standing.

20. This Stipulation is for the sole benefit of the Parties (except to the extent a provision of the Stipulation provides a benefit to AAFAF) and nothing expressed or implied in this Stipulation shall give or be construed to give any person or organization other than the Parties a beneficial interest in any legal or equitable rights under this Stipulation (except to the extent a provision of the Stipulation provides a benefit to AAFAF).

21. The Parties each represent and warrant that the undersigned is fully authorized and empowered to enter into this Stipulation on behalf of, and to bind, each Party as applicable, subject to the Court's approval. This Stipulation shall constitute the entire agreement by and among the Parties regarding the matters addressed herein. No extrinsic or parole evidence may be used to vary any of the terms herein. All representations, warranties, inducements, and/or statements of intention made by the Parties are embodied in this Stipulation, and no Party relied upon, shall be bound by, or shall be liable for any alleged representation, warranty, inducement, or statement of intention that is not expressly set forth in this Stipulation.

22. The Parties each declare that their respective decisions in executing this Stipulation are not predicated on or influenced by any declaration or representation of the other Party, except as otherwise expressly provided herein. The Parties agree that they have carefully read this Stipulation, and that they understand all of its terms and conditions, know its contents, and have signed below as their respective free and voluntary acts.

23. No modification, amendment or waiver of any of the terms or provisions of this Stipulation shall bind any Party unless such modification, amendment or waiver is in writing, has been executed by a duly authorized representative of the Party against whom such modification, amendment or waiver is sought to be enforced, and thereafter approved by the Court.

24. This Stipulation may be executed in one or more counterparts and by facsimile or electronic copy, all of which shall be considered effective as an original signature.

25. The Parties acknowledge that this Stipulation is the joint work product of all Parties and that, accordingly, in the event of ambiguities in this Stipulation, no inferences shall be drawn against any Party on the basis of authorship of this Stipulation.

26. This Stipulation contains the entire agreement by and among the Parties, and all prior understandings or agreements with respect thereto, if any, are merged into this Stipulation.

27. This Stipulation shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code and the laws of the State of New York, without regard to the conflict of laws principles thereof. This Stipulation shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Parties and their respective successors, assignees, agents, attorneys and representatives.

28. The Court shall retain exclusive jurisdiction to enforce this Stipulation and over any and all disputes arising out of or otherwise relating to this Stipulation.
